

NovaTech Technical Guide — Installation

System Requirements

NovaDesk requires a supported modern web browser and network access to the NovaTech application environment. Administrative configuration requires an administrator account.

Installation Process

The recommended installation process is to verify system requirements, configure the environment, initialize the application database, create an administrator account, and perform a health check.

Health Check

After installation, administrators should verify that the application is reachable, the database connection is operational, and background services are running.